

MRS. H. C. BUNNER
63 CHURCH STREET
NEW LONDON, CONN.

My dear Mr Lummis

The letter

books came and I enclose my check for $13.00 I am delighted with them

Thank you very much.
The rest of the season's orders to you.

Yours sincerely

Alis L Bunner.

Dec. 14. 1923

October 31, 1923.

Mrs. H. C. Bunker,
23 Church Street,
New London, Ct.

Dear Mrs. Bunker:

It was good indeed to have your note, and to know that you're still going your useful and helpful way, and that Anne has put on a play in Boston.

You speak in your letter about "the copies I have ordered", but your subscription blank does not name the number. Will you kindly fill in for me, on the blank which I return?

They will be ready in abundant time before Christmas - about three weeks from now - and a very handsome book (I expect) and certainly one of deep musical and ethnologic value.

You will be interested to know that the first edition is nearly all subscribed in the first two weeks, and that I shall have to order a second edition before the first is distributed. Of course, if I could advertise that would be so much the better.

With love and all best wishes for you and yours,

Always your Friend,

CFL/R

63. Church St.

MRS. H. C. BUNNER
24 RIVERBEND PLACE
OCEAN BEACH
NEW LONDON, CONN.

Oct. 24. 1923

My dear Mr. Lummis

What a delightful collection! and just in time to help me out on some Christmas presents for which date I hope they will arrive.
I am still childlike enough to want the presents at Christmas.

I think they ought to sell well
but - it is so much a question of advertising and we cannot afford to do that extensively.

However I shall do my best to make the copies I have ordered adventure the others.

It was nice to hear from you.
I am surrounded by the coming in generation but - I sometimes miss my own badly.

Anne, (Mrs Ingham) has just produced in Boston a play of her own. The producer was new and without much money so we did not get the representation
she hoped for but - it is interesting to me to see her following in her father's footsteps though in a different line.

I am sure you find life intensely interesting, you always did. Are n't you busy for all the bored people.

Yours very sincerely

Abner L. Bunker.